SEPTEMBER

The Season Premiere: Renée Fleming and the Oregon Symphony
September 24, 25 & 26, 2022
Soprano Renée Fleming, one of the most celebrated singers of our time, and Baritone Rodney Gilfry bring to life Georgia O’Keefe and Alfred Stieglitz’s passionate marriage in Kevin Puts’ The Brightness of Light. Plus, Music Director David Danzmayr leads the Symphony in Elgar’s Enigma Variations, musical vignettes of the composer’s friends and family.

David Danzmayr, Conductor
Renée Fleming, Soprano
Rodney Gilfry, Baritone

Bernstein: Overture to West Side Story
Kevin Puts: The Brightness of Light
Elgar: Enigma Variations

Revolution: The Music of The Beatles – A Symphonic Experience
October 15 & 16, 2022
The Beatles come to life in Revolution, the new symphonic tribute featuring arrangements transcribed from the original master recordings at Abbey Road. Accompanied by hundreds of rare and unseen photos, Revolution will take you on a sensational multimedia journey featuring more than 25 top hits like “Ticket to Ride,” “Hey, Jude,” and more.★

Jeff Tyzik, Conductor
Oregon Symphony

Strauss & Nielsen: Hope and the Human Spirit
October 22, 23 & 24, 2022
Music Director Laureate Carlos Kalmar leads a program exploring the invincibility of the human spirit. Strauss’s songs of farewell, with their radiant lyricism, offer hope and solace in the autumn of life, while Nielsen’s thrilling Fourth Symphony looks to transcend the anguish of World War I, culminating in a spectacular duel for two timpanists.

Carlos Kalmar, Conductor
Maeve Höglund, Soprano

Gabriella Smith: Tumblebird Contrails
Strauss: Four Last Songs
Seeger: Andante for Strings
Nielsen: Symphony No. 4, “The Inextinguishable”

OCTOBER

Ravel’s Boléro and Violinist Augustin Hadelich
October 8, 9 & 10, 2022
In a program inspired by the dynamism of dance, Ravel’s sensuous Boléro offers a kaleidoscope of orchestral color, ending with a feverish intensity sure to bring audiences to their feet. Also, Grammy Award-winning violinist Augustin Hadelich performs Donnacha Denney’s Violin Concerto, whose central movement explores transcending life under lockdown.

Markus Stenz, Conductor
Augustin Hadelich, Violin

Rossini, Overture to The Barber of Seville
Stravinsky: Jeu de cartes (Card Game)
Donnacha Denney: Violin Concerto
(US Premiere, and OSA co-commission)
Ravel: Boléro
NOVEMBER

Beethoven’s Eroica Symphony
November 5, 6 & 7, 2022

Showcasing the vast expressive range of the classical orchestra, Beethoven’s “Eroica” celebrates the power of the human spirit in times of conflict and intolerance. And Creative Chair Gabriel Kahane’s The Right to Be Forgotten explores our digital world, questioning ideas of convenience, privacy, free will, and democracy in the era of the internet.

David Danzmayr, Conductor
Gabriel Kahane, Vocals
Nathalie Joachim, Flute and Vocals
Alex Sopp, Flute and Vocals
Holcombe Waller, Guitar and Vocals

Lera Auerbach: Requiem for Icarus
Gabriel Kahane: The Right to Be Forgotten
Beethoven: Symphony No. 3, “Eroica”

---

The Power of Memories: Ravel and More with the Oregon Symphony
November 19, 20 & 21, 2022

Principal Guest Conductor Jun Märkl explores the interplay of memory and music in poignant works by Ravel and Dutilleux that trace the devastating impact of two world wars on European culture. Concertmaster Sarah Kwak performs Prokofiev’s shimmering, dreamlike Violin Concerto No. 1, which contrasts fairytale lightness with brazen savagery.

Jun Märkl, Conductor
Sarah Kwak, Violin
Sopranos, Pacific Youth Choir
Dutilleux: The Shadows of Time
Prokofiev: Violin Concerto No. 1
Ravel: Le Tombeau de Couperin
Ravel: La Valse

---

DECEMBER

Rachmaninoff’s Piano Concerto No. 2 with Pianist Kirill Gerstein
December 3, 4 & 5, 2022

Renowned pianist Kirill Gerstein brings his “intelligent and virtuosic music-making” (Observer) to Rachmaninoff’s Second Piano Concerto, a work of soulful melodies and technical fireworks. Framing the program are Tania León’s Pulitzer Prize-winning Stride, an homage to the profound legacy of Susan B. Anthony, and Prokofiev’s nostalgic Seventh Symphony.

David Danzmayr, Conductor
Kirill Gerstein, Piano

Tania León: Stride (2021 Pulitzer Prize Winner, West-coast premiere, and OSA co-commission)
Rachmaninoff: Piano Concerto No. 2
Prokofiev: Symphony No. 7

---

JANUARY

Rachmaninoff’s Second Symphony
January 14, 15 & 16, 2023

A masterwork of rich melody and tender romanticism, Rachmaninoff’s Second Symphony contains some of the composer’s most introspective, heartfelt music. Marin Alsop conducts this audience favorite along with Bernstein’s rowdy Candide Overture and the US premiere of a new concerto for cellist Inbal Segev from Grammy-nominated composer Vijay Iyer.

Marin Alsop, Conductor
Inbal Segev, Cello
Bernstein: Overture to Candide
Vijay Iyer: Human Archipelago (US Premiere, and OSA co-commission)
Rachmaninoff: Symphony No. 2

Star Wars vs. Star Trek
January 21 & 22, 2023

Unforgettable music from your favorite sci-fi film franchises played by your Oregon Symphony. From John Williams’ iconic Star Wars main theme and “Imperial March” to music from The Wrath of Khan to the newest Star Trek films.

Jeff Tyzik, Conductor

---

Bugs Bunny at the Symphony
November 26 & 27, 2022

Combining more than a dozen iconic Looney Tunes projected on the big screen while the Oregon Symphony plays their classical music-infused original scores live, Bugs Bunny At The Symphony features beloved favorites like What’s Opera, Doc?, The Rabbit of Seville, Baton Bunny, Corny Concerto, and Long-Haired Hare. Plus four brand-new, newly-created Looney Tunes shorts! Created by George Daugherty and David Ka Lik Wong.

George Daugherty, Conductor

---

Tchaikovsky’s Fifth Symphony and Violinist Vadim Gluzman
January 28, 29 & 30, 2023

An emotional journey rife with brilliant melody, Tchaikovsky’s Fifth Symphony is a triumphant reflection on the composer’s struggle with fate. Also, Nordic splendor takes center stage in Sibelius’ patriotic Finlandia and the US premiere of Erkki-Sven Tüür’s latest violin concerto performed by Vadim Gluzman, “one of today’s top violinists” (Washington Post).

David Danzmayr, Conductor
Vadim Gluzman, Violin
Sibelius: Finlandia
Erkki-Sven Tüür: Violin Concerto No. 3 (US Premiere, and OSA co-commission)
Tchaikovsky: Symphony No. 5

FEBRUARY

Emanuel Ax Plays Beethoven
February 4, 5 & 6, 2023
Experience Emanuel Ax’s unsurpassed virtuosity in Beethoven’s Third Piano Concerto, presented alongside the composer’s Second Symphony – two early works that find the German master honing his revolutionary musical voice. And Unsuk Chin’s Subito con forza pays homage to Beethoven and the relentless energy that is the hallmark of his music.

David Danzmayr, Conductor
Emanuel Ax, Piano
Chin: Subito con forza
Beethoven: Piano Concerto No. 3
Beethoven: Symphony No. 2

Carmina Burana
February 25, 26 & 27, 2023
With the ferocious roar of its unforgettable opening, Carl Orff’s exhilarating Carmina Burana has become a cultural phenomenon, arresting audiences with its bawdy celebration of life, love, and renewal. Opening the program is Hindemith’s Mathis der Maler Symphony, its three movements inspired by paintings from Matthais Grünewald’s Isenheim altarpiece.

Leo Hussain, Conductor
Portland State University Choirs
Pacific Youth Choir
Catherine St-Arnaud, Soprano
Marc Molomot, Tenor
Elliott Madore, Baritone
Paul Hindemith: Mathis der Maler Symphony
Carl Orff: Carmina Burana

MARCH

Music of (In)Tolerance: from Mendelssohn to Wagner
March 11, 12 & 13, 2023
Ideas of oppression and resilience are woven throughout Wagner’s rarely heard Rienzi Overture and Mendelssohn’s monumental “Reformation” Symphony, a heartfelt work inspired by the composer’s Protestant faith. Visionary pianist-composer Gabriela Montero showcases her astonishing powers in Babel, a portrait of her experience as a human rights activist.

David Danzmayr, Conductor
Gabriela Montero, Piano
Wagner: Overture to Rienzi
Gabriela Montero: Babel & Solo Improvisations
Taussky: Coventry
Mendelssohn: Symphony No. 5, “Reformation”

Retro Themes for Grown-Up Kids
March 18 & 19, 2023
Experience some of the musical moments of your youth with favorite film and TV scores in this nostalgic, fun-filled concert event! With memorable music from the James Bond and Pink Panther movies and iconic TV shows, enjoy a blast from the past and delight in the joys of these retro themes from timeless classics.

Jeff Tyzik, Conductor

Mendelssohn’s Violin Concerto with Violinist Blake Pouliot
March 25, 26 & 27, 2023
A “once in a lifetime” talent (Toronto Star), violinist Blake Pouliot brings his signature vigor to Mendelssohn’s Violin Concerto, one of the most dazzling showpieces for the instrument. Zemlinsky’s richly orchestrated The Mermaid is a probing psychological work of love lost, written after the composer’s own experience of devastating heartbreak.

Kevin John Edusei, Conductor
Blake Pouliot, Violin
Brahms: Academic Festival Overture
Mendelssohn: Violin Concerto in E Minor
Zemlinsky: The Mermaid
APRIL

Danzmayr Conducts Mahler’s Symphony No. 4
April 22, 23 & 24, 2023
Music Director David Danzmayr leads Mahler’s sunny Fourth Symphony, with its curious sleigh bells, puckish woodwinds, and a moving finale that imagines a child’s awe-inspiring vision of Heaven. Swedish soprano Camilla Tilling enchants with the “purity of her sound” (Gramophone) in both the Mahler and Osvaldo Golijov’s tender, tragic Three Songs.

David Danzmayr, Conductor
Camilla Tilling, Soprano
Osvaldo Golijov: Three Songs for Soprano and Orchestra
Mahler: Symphony No. 4

Music of Steel & Majesty with the Oregon Symphony
April 29, 30 & May 1, 2023
Be transported by the silvery sounds of the steel pan as Grammy-nominated composer and percussionist Andy Akiho performs Beneath Lighted Coffers, inspired by the architecture of the Roman Pantheon. Hailed by Schumann as “sheer musical mastery,” Schubert’s Ninth Symphony is the composer’s most exuberant, expansive symphonic statement.

David Danzmayr, Conductor
Andy Akiho, Steel Pans
Andy Akiho: Beneath Lighted Coffers
Schubert: Symphony No. 9, “The Great C Major”

MAY

Classical Gershwin with the Oregon Symphony
May 13, 14 & 15, 2023
Steeped in jazz, blues, and ragtime, Gershwin’s Concerto in F is a quintessentially American take on the classical concerto, making it the perfect vehicle for the dynamic pianist Aaron Diehl. Shostakovich’s brooding, deeply personal Tenth Symphony pursues great extremes in emotion and orchestral color, from wistful wind solos to menacing marches.

Antony Hermus, Conductor
Aaron Diehl, Piano

Unsuk Chin: Frontispiece for Orchestra
Gershwin: Concerto in F Major

Shostakovich: Symphony No. 10

Tchaikovsky’s Swan Lake Suite and Violinist Simone Lamsma
May 20, 21 & 22, 2023
A timeless tale of love and transformation, Tchaikovsky’s Swan Lake is a masterful marriage of melody and movement. Artist-in-Residence Simone Lamsma joins the Symphony for Barber’s sublimely romantic Violin Concerto, while composer Gabriela Lena Frank’s Concertino Cusqueño is a vibrant celebration of her Peruvian heritage.

Jun Märkl, Conductor
Simone Lamsma, Violin

Gabriela Lena Frank: Concertino Cusqueño
Barber: Violin Concerto

Respighi: The Birds

Tchaikovsky: Selections from Swan Lake

JUNE

Holst’s The Planets
June 3*, 4 & 5, 2023
A triumph of orchestration, Holst’s The Planets conjures vivid portrayals of the mythological deities associated with our solar system, from Mars’ drums of war to Neptune’s ethereal mysticism. Plus, bassist and Creative Alliance member Xavier Foley brings consummate versatility to the stage, performing his For Justice and Peace, a powerful meditation on the legacy of slavery in the U.S.

David Danzmayr, Conductor

Mahler’s Symphony No. 5
June 10, 11 & 12, 2023
Our season concludes with Mahler’s Fifth Symphony, a work of vast emotional scope that moves from grief to jubilation and includes the composer’s famous Adagietto – a love song to his future wife, Alma, tenderly scored for strings and harp. Principal Flute Martha Long brings sparkling grace to Mozart’s playful Flute Concerto in G Major.

David Danzmayr, Conductor
Martha Long, Flute

Mozart: Flute Concerto in G Major
Mahler: Symphony No. 5

How to Subscribe:

Choose one or more series, and order online, by phone, or by mail

When you’re ready to place your order, simply visit orsymphony.org/cyo, email symphony@orsymphony.org, call the Ticket Office at 503-228-1353, or visit us at 909 SW Washington St.

You may also mail the enclosed order form to:
921 SW Washington Street, Ste 200
Portland, OR 97205-2800

Cancelations

In the event of a concert cancelation, patrons will be contacted promptly. Oregon Symphony offers a generous exchange and/or refund policy, and all ticket holders will have 90 days to act on any funds associated with the concert. After this period, if no action has been taken, these funds will automatically convert to a tax-deductible donation. Further details can be found at orsymphony.org/cancelations.

Patron Safety

The health and safety of our patrons, musicians, staff, and volunteers is our top priority. The Oregon Symphony is committed to ensuring that you have an exceptional concert experience with policies and procedures for a safe environment for all. For more information and full details of Oregon Symphony’s health and safety guidelines for concerts at the Arlene Schnitzer Concert Hall in Portland and Smith Auditorium in Salem, go to orsymphony.org/safety.
