Favorites Chosen by Members of the Oregon Symphony

For your series, consider these favorite concerts selected by members of your Oregon Symphony:

- “Mahler 1 is subtitled ‘Titan’ for more reasons than one...and being a horn player, there is a special theatrical surprise at the end!”

- “Show some bassoon love and support my solo featured in Villa-Lobos’ Ciranda das Sete Notas.”

- “Cirque Noir adds another layer to already amazing orchestra music, and it’s not every day that I get to perform beneath aerialists!”

OCTOBER

Jazz at Lincoln Center Orchestra with Wynton Marsalis
October 7, 2023
Experience the sensational jazz at Lincoln Center Orchestra, led by artistic director, trumpeter extraordinaire, and nine-time Grammy Award-winner Wynton Marsalis. The Chicago Tribune describes the band in concert: “The orchestra [tore] through this music as if chasing the wind. Only a group of musicians who have toured together for so long...could have attained this kind of synchronicity.”
The Oregon Symphony does not perform.

Passion and Precision: Elgar’s Cello Concerto
October 14, 15 & 16, 2023
The riveting cellist Joshua Roman plumbs the emotional depths of Elgar’s powerful Cello Concerto, a work of searing intensity and profound beauty. And Mason Bates’ Anthology of Fantastic Zoology brings a bevy of mythological creatures to life in a virtuosic showpiece.
Leonard Slatkin, Conductor
Joshua Roman, Cello
Beethoven: Leonora Overture No. 3
Elgar: Cello Concerto
Mason Bates: Anthology of Fantastic Zoology

Troupe Vertigo’s Cirque Noir with the Oregon Symphony
October 21 & 22, 2023

JANUARY

Rachmaninoff’s Second Symphony
January 13, 14 & 15, 2024
In a program celebrating the legacy of great pianist-composers, Rachmaninoff’s Second Symphony unfurls a tapestry of heartfelt melodies and lush romanticism that will make spirits soar. And Conrad Tao showcases his “openhearted vision” (New York Times) as composer of the opening Over and soloist in Haydn’s final piano concerto.

David Danzmayr, Conductor
Conrad Tao, Piano
Conrad Tao: Over
Haydn: Piano Concerto in D Major
Rachmaninoff: Symphony No. 2

Musical Fortitude: Schumann’s Second Symphony
January 27, 28 & 29, 2024
Composed during a period of emotional upheaval, Schumann’s Second Symphony traces a defiantly joyous journey toward radiant hope. And pianist Tamara Stefanovich dazzles in Hans Abrahamsen’s transfixing Left, Alone, a work of fire and ice in which the soloist relies on the virtuosity of their left hand.

Mario Venzago, Conductor
Tamara Stefanovich, Piano
Farrenc: Concert Overture No. 1 in E Minor

Beethoven’s Fifth Symphony
February 10, 11 & 12, 2024

From its ominous opening — “Fate knocking at the door” — to the closing passages of radiant triumph, Beethoven’s Fifth Symphony charts an exhilarating spiritual journey. Beethoven’s legacy looms in works by Carlos Simon and Timo Andres, whose Blind Bannister reimagines the grace and wit of Beethoven’s Second Piano Concerto.

David Danzmayr, Conductor
Timo Andres, Piano
Beethoven: Egmont Overture
Timo Andres: The Blind Bannister, Piano Concerto
Carlos Simon: Fate Now Conquers
Beethoven: Symphony No. 5

Violinist Gil Shaham Plays Tchaikovsky with the Oregon Symphony
February 17, 18 & 19, 2024

Gil Shaham ranks among the greatest violinists of our time and brings his captivating talents to the lush melodies and virtuoso fireworks of Tchaikovsky’s beloved Violin Concerto. Plus Bruckner’s “Romantic” Symphony evokes a panorama of pastoral landscapes and country festivals.

MARCH

Saint-Saëns’ Organ Symphony and Violinist James Ehnes
March 9, 10 & 11, 2024

Saint-Saëns unleashes the grandeur of the pipe organ in a symphony that embraces serenity and scales heights of euphoria. And Brahms’ Violin Concerto — from its pastoral opening to its boisterous finale — is flush with striking lyricism, making it the perfect vehicle for violinist James Ehnes’ “velvety sound and sensitivity” (New York Times).

Jonathon Heyward, Conductor
James Ehnes, Violin
Brahms: Violin Concerto
Saint-Saëns: Symphony No. 3, “Organ”

The Godfather in Concert
Feature Film with the Oregon Symphony
March 14, 2024

Relive the chilling portrait of the Sicilian clan’s rise to power as the Oregon Symphony performs Nino Rota’s unforgettable score live to Francis Ford Coppola’s movie masterpiece, The Godfather. Winner of ten Academy Awards including Best Picture and featuring landmark performances from screen legends Marlon Brando and Al Pacino, this unique movie-going event is one you “can’t refuse!”

Violinist Simone Lamsma Plays Bruch with the Oregon Symphony
April 20, 21 & 22, 2024

Artist-in-Residence Simone Lamsma brings her “brightly radiant sound” (New York Times) to Bruch’s poetic Violin Concerto, one of the most cherished works written for the instrument. And Bartók’s Concerto for Orchestra transforms each section of the orchestra into spotlight soloists in an emotional odyssey from sorrow to an affirmation of life.

David Danzmayr, Conductor
Simone Lamsma, Violin
Julia Perry: A Short Piece for Orchestra
Bruch: Violin Concerto No. 1 in G Minor
Bartók: Concerto for Orchestra

Beethoven’s Eighth Symphony
April 27, 28 & 29, 2024

A testament to Beethoven’s sly wit, the Eighth Symphony finds the revolutionary composer transforming beloved 18th-century dance forms with new dramatic possibilities. And violinist Baiba Skride displays a “soaring, incisive tone” (Strad) in Britten’s Violin Concerto, an emotionally charged work composed as Europe descended into World War II.

Kristiina Poska, Conductor
Baiba Skride, Violin
Britten: Four Sea Interludes

MAY

Rachmaninoff’s Rhapsody on a Theme of Paganini
May 11, 12 & 13, 2024
A rollercoaster of pianistic flourishes, Rachmaninoff’s ravishing rhapsody is given a tour-de-force performance by soloist Simon Trpčeski. Dvořák’s distinctly Bohemian style shines in his brooding, mysterious Seventh Symphony, in which the composer gives voice to personal grief and the struggles of his nation.
Delyana Lazarova, Conductor
Simon Trpčeski, Piano
Dobrinka Tabakova: Timber and Steel
Rachmaninoff: Rhapsody on a Theme of Paganini
Dvořák: Symphony No. 7

Berlioz’ Symphonie Fantastique
May 18, 19 & 20, 2024
Berlioz paints a portrait of obsessive love with opium-fueled visions of cinematic realism, featuring haunting ballroom waltzes, a march to the guillotine, and maniacal witches’ dances. Opening the program, Debussy’s tone poem heaves with hazy sensuality, and violinist Carolin Widmann explores nature and love in works by Takemitsu and Chausson.
Jun Märkl, Conductor
Carolin Widmann, Violin
Debussy: Prelude to the Afternoon of a Faun
Takemitsu: Far Calls. Coming, Far!
Chausson: Poème
Berlioz: Symphonie Fantastique

JUNE

The Music of Dance: Schubert & Strauss
June 1, 2 & 3, 2024
The lyricism of music inspired by dance takes center stage in Schubert’s Unfinished Symphony and Strauss’s Rosenkavalier Suite — their rhythms and melodies evoking the opulence of 19th-century Vienna. And Artist-in-Residence Xavier Foley paints musical portraits of Argentina in a new arrangement of Piazzolla’s tango-infused Four Seasons of Buenos Aires.

David Danzmayr, Conductor
Xavier Foley, Double Bass
Giancarlo Castro: Commission and World Premiere
Piazzolla (arr. G. Moreira): Four Seasons of Buenos Aires
Schubert: Symphony No. 8, “Unfinished”
R. Strauss: Suite from Der Rosenkavalier

Cancelations

In the event of a concert cancelation, patrons will be contacted promptly. Oregon Symphony offers a generous exchange and/or refund policy, and all ticket holders will have 90 days to act on any funds associated with the concert. After this period, if no action has been taken, these funds will automatically convert to a tax-deductible donation. Further details can be found at orsymphony.org/cancelations.
